Aurora is a high quality, competitively priced, full-service agency with our own in-house panel of 95,000 UK adults, managed by researchers, for researchers.

Because the Omnibus is offered by Aurora Market Research, you benefit from our extensive research expertise. We guarantee the same care and attention we give our clients when we are running full service research projects for them.

Book your questions on the Aurora Omnibus, it's the brighter, faster way to get the answers you need
